

WILL MAKE PAPER FROM CORNSTALKS

Farmers' Old Tanglefoot Foe
Found to Have Its Purpose.

The despised cornstalk may soon be regarded as a blessing by the farmer, if recent experiments by chemists of the Bureau of Forestry and Plant Industry are carried to further commercial development.

It has just been discovered that fine grades of paper can be manufactured from cornstalks at a cost almost as low as the present cost of making wood pulp. In their experiments, the chemists used the "soda-cooked" process. The preparation of the pulp from the cornstalks was completed in from two to two and a half hours, whereas the preparation of the wood pulp requires from twelve to fourteen hours.

Any variety of cornstalk can be used. The cost of wood pulp is $13 a ton, and the Government chemists figure estimates the cost with the new material will be not over $14 a ton during the very early stages of the development of its manufacture. As the industry be developed the cost will eventually be reduced to 50 per cent of that for wood pulp. Figures indicate that the supply of trees for wood pulp will soon run out. This makes the new discovery important.

GEORGE BAIN TO LECTURE.

OLD HUNTER LUCKY.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 13.—Jeremiah Cutler, just past eighty-one years, is home from the Adirondacks with a 125-pound deer, a trophy of his skill as a hunter. The deer was secured on Harrisburg lake, after a three-mile trudge. Mr. Cutler says that he will hunt again next year.

Without Driver, Big Stallion Speeds Mile in Record Time

Red Rock, Touted as Winner in Speed Ring, Ran Away
Around Mile Course—Fourth Day of Show Is Great Success.

Red Rock, a sorrel stallion, owned by Matthew Trimble, and driven by Lee Dorsey couldn't take things in a quiet way at the Benning Horse Show this morning and started out to do a little running on his own hook. Red Rock entered in the first event of the fourth day of the show, for "Best speedway stallion, Mare or Gelding," and during the warming up before the half-mile sulky race he exhibited a desire to get away. On the third try for a "Go," Red Rock dipped his sulky into a rut and Dorsey went out, lighting on his right shoulder. He was uninjured, but when he got to his feet, Red Rock was a fulling away, speeding around the track. In spite of the efforts of stable boys and hostlers the stallion, touted as the winner of the event, trotted, paced and ran the entire mile of the course.

Stopped near the starters flag, but one of the rear wheels of the sulky was bent so badly that Mr. Trimble had to withdraw his entry. Venus, a bay mare, entered by E. F. Hall, came under the wire in 1 minute 12-5 seconds in this event. The winner was given a beautiful silver cup, presented by C. J. Rixey. The cup is one of the prettiest prizes of the show. May Queen, entered by George Goodacre, took second in this event, while "Carroll," entered by Gus Grabler, won the third place.

The fourth day of the big show has proved so successful that it is believed that the affair may be held each year. The grand stand was well filled this morning with men in riding togs and women in the latest habits. The lawn in front of the club house was dotted with spectators and society folk and when Red Rock and again when Venus came hammering up the stretch, the space in front of the big stand was crowded with applauding humanity. The day was one of the best since the show began, not cold nor too warm. The exhibitors and many of the spectators came out early while the trainers of horses entered in the afternoon events added a touch of contrast to a scene that fast became brilliant.

Among the society people who were conspicuous this morning were Miss Mabel Flynn, Miss Reba Duffenderfer, Mrs. M. C. Jackson, Mrs. Allen Potts, Miss Cherbonnier, Miss Dorothy Tate, Miss Dorothy Mosher, Miss Catherine Powell.

Sam, of "The Horse Stable," owned by Albert G. Brooke, took both a blue and yellow ribbon yesterday. In the first event, class 45, for best single horse for family use, he took the yellow ribbon with a prize of $5.

In class 48, for roadster, he carried off the blue ribbon with a prize of $50. "John," another of Mr. Brooke's entries, took the red ribbon with a prize of $25, for roadster to a wagon or runabout.

McCauley, manager of "The Horse Stable," drove in each event.

Winner of Second Event.
The second event was won by Gribber & Garber, who exhibited Chestnut Gelding, Byers' Brothers & Koonitz took second with Times, and also captured third with News. This event was for best horse shown in suitable harness. The first prize was $50; second, $25, and third, $5.

In the third event Edward H. Weather, who has won many other events on previous days, captured two places. The first place was given to Keswick, second place went to Ardley, owned by the "Watchdog" firm, and Majesty, Mr. Weather's other entry, got third. This event was for qualified hunters capable of carrying up to 150 pounds to hounds. The first prize was $75; second, $25; third, a ribbon.

HUNTING LICENSE TAKEN BY 2 WOMEN

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Among the hundreds of hunters who have taken out licenses to shoot this season on Long Island are two women. But for the establishment of the new law it would not have been known, perhaps, that Miss Lillie J. Howell, of East Moriches, and Mrs. G. S. Baxter, of Bellport, L. I., enjoy shooting game. They took out licenses and are now regularly catalogued as hunters, and are entitled to shoot anywhere in the State.

ESCAPED THROUGH FLUE.

BERKELEY SPRINGS, W. Va., Oct. 15.—An Italian who was confined in jail at Maysville, Grant county, W. Va., charged with murdering a fellow-countryman at Henry, made his escape by tearing away a brick flue which ran from his cell to the one above, which was open.
